DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-14, 19-24, and 29-36 are drawn to a method of managing risk with claims directed to only searching the tables and the related system claims, classified in class 705, subclass 1. (Please note, the applicant has changed the dependency of claims 20 and 22-24 to be dependent on newly added claim 33, it is believed that the dependencies are incorrect and were meant to have depended from claim 34 instead of claim 33. In the least, the preamble language of the claims is inconsistent since system claims are dependent from a method claim. Appropriate correction and/or explanation is requested in response to this requirement.)
- II. Claims 15-17 and 25-28 are drawn to a method of managing risk with claims directed to only editing/tailoring the tables and assigning the risk factors and the related system claims, classified in class 705, subclass 1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I. and II. are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together. Furthermore both inventions had different designs, modes of operation, and effects. For example, when considering the system claims in conjunction with the method claims as grouped above, it is clear that applicant's invention of Group II. is related to customizing tables. This is most clearly evidenced by the additional "computer work station" included in the language of claim 25. It is this additional computer workstation not found within independent claims 1 and 19 of Group I., that allows for the method of customizing the tables in method claim 15. It is the Examiners position that the system difference to allow for the customization of method claim 15 is both a different design and mode of operation from claims 1 and 19 directed to searching the tables in the risk management system. The difference in effect is similarly different since the effect of Group I. is merely for searching. In contrast, the effect of Group II. is to provide a customized table.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;

- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
